

Protocol and General Etiquette

Presented by:
Kedar Paudel

1

उपकारी गुणी व्यक्ति निहुरन्छ निरन्तर ।
फलेको वृक्षको हाँगो नभुकेको कहाँ छ र ॥ कवि शिरोमणि लेखनाथ पौड्याल

“Many people are educated but not totally mannered.”

- Anonymous

➤ “Maturity doesn’t mean age; it means sensitivity, manners, and how you react.”

- Anonymous

➤ Politeness is the chief sign of culture.

- Baltasar Gracian

➤ “Your wealth is your good manners.”

- Anonymous

➤ “There are some things that money can’t buy, like manners, morals, and integrity.”

- Anonymous

➤ “People are people no matter where you go, they want to be valued.”

- Cindy Grosso

➤ “ Good manners will open doors that the good education cannot”

- C. thomas

Protocol, Manner and Etiquette: simple understanding

- Protocol, Manners and Etiquette are not only different words for the same meaning. However,
- Manners: What to do it.
- Etiquette: How to do it.
- Protocol: When to do it.

Protocol

- Protocol is about following correct procedures. It is the art of ensuring that official visits, meetings and functions are planned and conducted in accordance with a established set of rules that are formally, socially and culturally accepted and expected by the parties involved.
- A protocol is a rule which describes how an activity should be performed, especially in the field of diplomacy.
- A Protocol is a forms of ceremony and diplomatic etiquette observed by diplomats and heads of state.

Manner

- It is an attitude of a person that sets of his/her traits.
- Manners are an expression of inner character of a person.
- The treatment of other people with courtesy and politeness, and showing correct public behaviour.

Etiquette

7

“The customary code of polite behaviour in society or members of a particular profession or group” -Oxford Dictionary

- “Etiquette is what you are doing and saying when people are looking and listening. What you are thinking is your business.”
-Virginia Cary Hudson
- Etiquette is the customs or rules governing behaviour regarded as correct or acceptable in social or official life.
- Etiquette is a conventional but unwritten code of practice followed by members of any of certain professions or groups.

Rules of etiquette are the guiding codes that enable us to practice manners.

Etiquette and manners are important aspects of the court system. They help to maintain the decorum of the court, ensure the fair and impartial administration of justice, and demonstrate respect for the rule of law.

Avenues of Etiquettes and Manners

- Professional Etiquette
- Meeting and Conversation
 - Dress Code
 - Body Postures
 - Language and communication
- Social Functions
 - Respect to Culture
 - Table manner and meal etiquette
- Other Dos and Do not (miscellaneous)

Judges' Professional Etiquette

- Courtroom Etiquette
- Etiquette under prescribed Rules and Code of Conduct for Judges
- Meeting and Conversation Etiquette
- Social Etiquette

Professional Conduct of Judges

- Be calm, composed, and respectful
- Avoid anger, sarcasm, or ridicule
- Start on time, be well-prepared
- Dress professionally

सामाजिक शिष्टाचार

- Societal Prestige
- Public Scrutiny.
- Minimize the Risk of Conflict with Judicial Obligations.
- Compliance with the Code of Conduct.

Greetings: Handshake

- Firmly with men and softly with women,
 - Should not use both hands or grab while shaking hands,
 - Always the senior extends hand for shake up. In case of women, a man should give hand if she extends her first,
 - Understand the culture of the guests
- If the guests are from Muslim countries, women avoid shaking hands with men.

Exchange of Visiting Cards

- Always carry visiting Cards in a Visiting Card case
- Do not draw visiting cards from wallet
- Follow the local tradition while giving away the cards

Dress Code

(Cont..)

15

National dress

- Lounge suit:
 - Dark combination (brown is generally not worn)
 - For women-either combination suit or national attire
- Smart Casual:
 - One of the most common yet confusing.
- Casual:
 - with gentle color paint and shirt/should consider the local weather condition
- Picnic/outings
 - Colourful dress/jeans

Shoe:

- Good quality leather shoes, generally laced on formal occasion
- Women should try to avoid long pencil heel shoe. Heel shoe is preferred but moderately (2 inch).
- Preferred black colour

➤ Socks:

- Generally preferred black colour

➤ Coat button:

- while standing, the coat should be buttoned and unbuttoned while seating. If the coat is of two buttons leave the lower button undone
- If coat is three buttoned, the middle one should be buttoned

➤ Black belt

Dress Code: some tips

17

Before starting to plan any outfit you should always consider these three things:

- Where is the event held? If you haven't been, look up the venue. You can judge a lot by its décor.
- The demographic of attendees - who will be there?
- Ask yourself whether what you're wearing would be appropriate for another dress code. For example, if it is bordering on 'cocktail', then reconsider.

Social functions

(Contd..)

18

Menu:

- Table d'hôte :
 - Table of the host, Fixed menu
 - Set menu for platter service (4 to 5 courses normal). There could be elaborate menu courses
- A la Carte :
 - From the card
 - Choosing from menu
- Buffet:
 - Display of items
 - Choose according to your taste

Social functions

(Contd..)

Toasts

- Either the wine or Champaign is served for toast
- Raise your glass
 - Water glass should not be raised for toast
 - Non-alcohol drinkers can raise eg: juice glass
- After toast, should not keep glass without sip
- There may be numbers of toasts, do not make empty of your glass

Social functions

(Contd..)

- Speech/Remarks
 - Generally short speech/remarks are made at the official banquet/dinner/luncheons
 - Even in informal settings, short remarks are made
- Dessert
- Tea/coffee
- See off the guests

Social functions

(Contd..)

Use of Napkin

- Place a napkin on lap
- Do not flap a napkin on the air
- Do not wipe face by napkin
- Use a napkin only for blot on mouth
- Do not wipe the silverware by napkin
- Place napkin on the chair if to leave the table for any reason
- Place napkin on left after finishing the meal

Social functions

(Contd..)

22

➤ Pre-dinner drinks

- whisky, gin, sherry (sweet/dry wine), Juice, red wine, white wine, soft drinks

➤ Limit yourself for the drink

- Over drink may loosen your tongue and body imbalance, which may invite yourself in an embarrassing situation.

➤ Drink at the formal dinner

- Fish/chicken-white wine/ red meat-red wine
- Sweet wine or Champaign

➤ After dinner

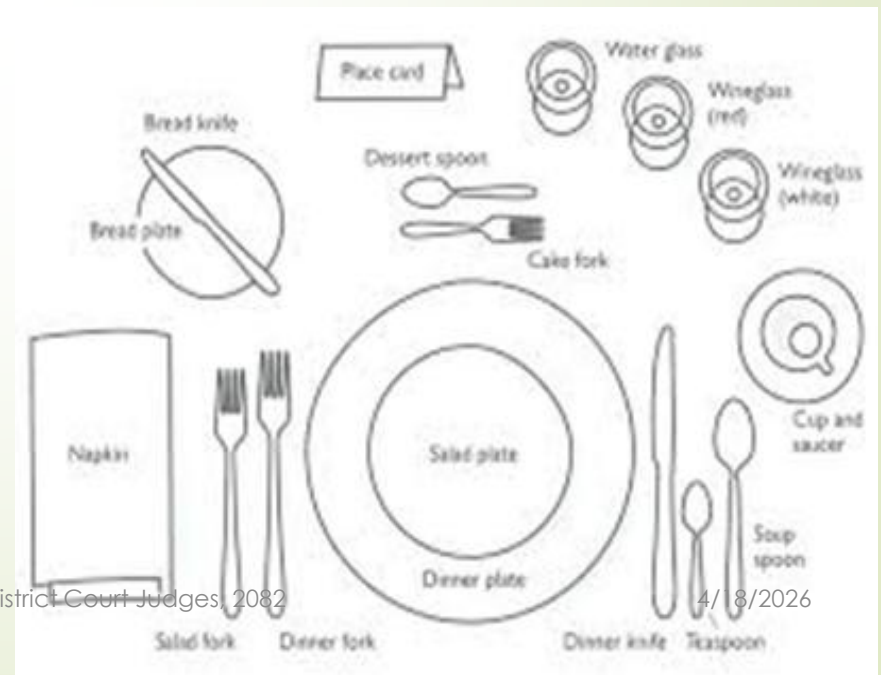

- usually brandy, cognac are served.

Social functions

(Contd..)

Table Manners

- Arrangement of plates,
- Side plates
- Glasses
- Knives, forks and spoons

Dining Etiquette For Beginners.mp4

Social functions

(Contd..)

Table Manners

- Side plates are kept at the left hand side
- Forks/knives are to be used from outside-in
- Use of Napkin towels
- Usually meals are served from the head table
- Start eating after the host and chief guest start eating

Table Manner

Avoid the following actions:

- Placing handbag/purse on the table
- Gesturing with your knife or spoon
- Putting food into mouth with a knife
- Reaching across the guests to get a dish instead asking for passing it to you
- Applying lipstick at the table
- Do not pick at your teeth or put your fingers in mouth
- Do not say “I don’t like this, or I hate that”

Table Manner

- Do not mix food together
- Do not pick up utensils or napkin dropped on the floor instead ask for another
- Do not tilt or rock your chair. Maintain good posture
- Don't slurp while taking tea/coffee

Table Manner

30

- Use the fork with your left hand and knife with the right
- Should not make unpleasant sound while using knife and fork
- Never speak with your mouthful or ask a question to a person sitting besides you just when the person has taken food in the mouth.
- Do not chew with your mouth open
- Do not gargle while drinking water
- Do not poke your teeth with a toothpick or fingernail
- At buffet, do not pile food on your plate

Using a Car

- The Security or Protocol Officer seats in the front seat besides the driver
- If the VIP is driving the car, his/her spouse should seat in the front seat and his/her subordinate or friends should be at the back seat
- After the senior rides, the junior should take his/her seat

Response to Salami (Salute)

- Civil Authority do not return a military salute
- They acknowledge it with dignity and courtesy
- Correct ways to respond is:
 - Slight inclination of Head: a gentle nod of the head
 - Brief eye contact with a composed posture: often combined with a head nod
 - Verbal acknowledgement (mainly in informal setting)
 - During formal ceremony: Stand straight, Head nod, absolute silence
 - During movement: continue moment, acknowledge with head nod with stopping

Response to Salami (Salute)

Situation	Response
PSO salutes	Slight head nod
Armed police salutes	Head nod with eye contact
Parade or guard of honour	Head nod
Informal setting	Head nod with brief verbal acknowledgement

Some more tips

Holding Cup

Blow your nose

Food stuck in the mouth

If the food is too hot

Lastly and most importantly

Maintenance of time, punctuality and fulfillment of your commitment diligently and cheerfully

Should make a habit of seeking apology for one's shortcoming and extending thanks for help

Any Questions ??

